DETAILED ACTION

This office action is a response to the election of species filed on 8/14/2006.

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Species AA, claims 1-5, in the reply filed on 8/14/2006 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 6 and 7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/14/2006.

Specification

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

4. Claims 1-5 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Re. Claim 1: Before the phrase "contacts" as recited in lines 7 and 10, delete the word "said".

Re. Claims 2-5: Before the phrase "method" as recited in line 1, change the word "A" to --The--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fujita et al. (US PAT. 5,510,758).

Fujita et al. teach a process of making an electrical device comprising steps of: forming a first contact of contacts (20) on a first surface of a first sacrificial substrate (4); forming a second contact of contacts (21) of a first surface of a second sacrificial substrate (5) as shown in Fig. 2; forming a signal transmission line (12, 13, 14) in a base substrate (1) as shown in Fig. 2; attaching the first surface of the first sacrificial substrate to the base substrate and joining the first contact to the signal transmission line; and attaching the first surface of the second sacrificial substrate to the base substrate and joining the second contact to the signal transmission line as shown in Fig. 2 (see also col. 6, lines 15-67).

7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamamoto et al. (US PAT. 5,434,453).

Yamamoto et al. teach a process of making an electrical device comprising steps of: forming a first contact of contacts (4) on a first surface of a first sacrificial substrate (2a); forming a second contact of contacts (4) of a first surface of a second sacrificial substrate (2b) as shown in Fig. 3; forming a signal transmission line (10) in a base substrate (1) as shown in Fig. 3; attaching the first surface of the first sacrificial substrate to the base substrate and joining the first contact to the signal transmission line; and attaching the first surface of the second sacrificial substrate to the base substrate and joining the second contact to the signal transmission line as shown in Fig. 3 (see also col. 6, lines 1-58).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
